Seminar Title:

International Training and Seminar on School Management and Classroom StraTechs for Teachers and School Administrators

Program Brief Description:

This program focuses on enhancing school management and classroom strategies (StraTechs) for teachers and school administrators through an international training, self-paced or online platform. It likely covers topics such as leadership, effective teaching methodologies, curriculum development, assessment techniques, and creating a positive learning environment. The international aspect suggests exposure to global best practices and perspectives in education.
